HOSPITAL POST RECOMMENDED

Committee Acts To Place Proposal Before Council at Next Meeting

SCHEDULED FOR AUG 12

Superintendent Manager Would Have Charge of Business Affairs

The city council hospital committee voted last night to recommend to council at its next meeting that the position of superintendent manager of the City hospital be created The council committee met with Safety Director W N Sams and Mayor C A Bolin in the latter s office

Council is expected to act on the recommendation at its next regular meeting Aug 12 and the appointment probably will be made by Safety Director Sams this month

Mr Sams said he has five or six local men under consideration for the appointment to the position which will carry a salary of $150 a month He said that while the man selected will not be trained in hospital management he will be a competent business executive

At a joint meeting June 28 of the city council hospital committee and representatives of the women s hospital board it was recommended that a man trained in hospital management be sought for the position of superintendent manager Mr Sams said in view of the salary recommended by the council committee last night it would be impossible to find a trained man at that figure

At the joint meeting June 25 it also was recommended that a qualified woman from out of the city be brought in to act as supervisor of nurses Mr Sams recently appointed Miss Carmelita O Donnel who had been assistant superintendent of the hospital under the old set up to the position of acting supervisor of nurses Miss O Donnell s appointment has not been made permanent

To Handle Business Affairs

The superintendent manager will handle all strictly business phases of hospital operation which include general management purchasing of foods supplies and coal collection of accounts attending to the care of the grounds and plant and interviewing salesmen

On June 10 city council abolished the position of superintendent of the City hospital and placed the management of the institution in the hands of Mr Sams City officials described the move as a change in policy to place a business manager in charge in an effort to eliminate deficits in operation which they said have amounted to $64 000 in the last eight years Miss Mary F ... ant was superintendent of the hospital for the last five years

Members of the council committee who met with Mr Sams and Mayor Bolin last night were Harry T Bell committee chairman George P Henney and Elmer J Flach

SURVEY SHOWS BUSINESS STILL GOING UPWARD

UPTURN ON BROAD FRONT

Steel Demand Keeps Up as Inquiries for New Model Materials Are Received

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND Aug 1—A business survey by the Cleveland Federal Reserve bank provided encouragement today for and industry in Ohio and other parts of the fourth reserve district

General business the last week of June and the first three weeks of July was slightly upward the bank reported adding these increases were favorable in two respects—in that they occurred at a season of the year when little change is expected and were not confined to any particular line

Steel Demand Good

A general demand for steel products provided an upward turn in the steel industry the report said while the future outlook was described as brightened with unusually strong buying support from the tinplate and agricultural machinery branches Inquiries for automobile steels or new models also are beginning to appear

Tire production the report asserted was down seasonally and there was a drastic curtailment of coal production in early July following a sharp increase in June

The bank found glass production holding up well in June but recessions in china and pottery plant operations Demand for fall clothing had clothing factories working near capacity levels

Contrary to seasonal tendencies retail trade was reported increased in June with indication the trend continued in July Employment and payrolls however were listed as a decline in June more than the seasonal amount

Building Trade Picks Up

An improvement was noted in residential building also in non residential building excluding public works Demand deposits in reporting member banks were up $8 000 000 in the last five weeks and amounted to $7 6 000 000 20 per cent more than a year ago Time deposits as of July 24 were $468 000 000 little changed from the previous year

The bank said for the first half of 1935 it seemed that a slight gain in general business from the same period of 1934 occurred with increases in the automobile and allied industries more than offsetting the declines in some of the other lines

The two women were visiting in the living room of their home with Miss Louise Artz of Lima Miss Bessie O Donnell told police today They heard a slight noise but paid no attention to the disturbance Shortly afterward they discovered that purses belonging to Miss Margaret O Donnell and Miss Artz were missing from the dining room

The thief had apparently used an ice pick to unhook the back screen door and had entered through the kitchen police believed Miss Artz s purse contained $3 some small change a compact key and rosary Miss O Donnell s contained $5 some small change a rosary and cross

Three weeks ago a sneak thief was reported to have carried away purses from the residence of Mrs Valeria Stuckert of West Pleasant street The theft occurred Saturday night July 13 while Mrs Stuckert and five other women were sitting on the front porch Between $80 and $85 was reported missing from the pocketbooks which were found in a nearby clump of bushes the next day

HEAVY STORM TOUCHES HERE

Barn Struck by Lightning as Edge of Severe Thunder shower Hits Marion

95 INCH OF RAIN FALLS

Southern Ohio Suffers More Storms Predicted for To-night and Friday

Nearly an inch of rain fell in Marion between midnight and early morning today and fire caused from lightning during an electrical storm destroyed a large barn on the Henry Axthelm farm five miles west of Cardington as the city and county felt the edge of one of the worst storms in southern Ohio in 10 years The rainfall in Marion measured 95 of an inch

Despite the rain the temperature here early this afternoon registered 82 on the thermometer of Dr E H Paffensperger weather observer This is two degrees below the season s high mark

Farm crops in Ohio and West Virginia suffered heavily according to the Associated Press Streams ran full today carrying away wheat hay and wreckage of buildings Wind and lightning caused considerable damage

The weather bureau at Marietta recorded 4 6 inches of rain most of which fell within three hours

Remove Horses Tools

The fire at the Axthelm farm was discovered about 2 a m by Mr Axthelm who was awakened by the storm Several horses and some farm machinery were removed by Mr Axthelm and his son in law Lowell Boger before the building was destroyed

Relatives and neighbors summoned by Mrs Boger who drove two miles through the storm to give the alarm aided in keeping the flames from spreading to the farm residence

The loss is partially covered by insurance Mr Axthelm his son in law and daughter reside on the farm

The rolling thunder and sharp flashes of lightning awakened many Marion residents during the night

Humidity which intensified the 89-degree temperature here yesterday sent Marionites to the parks and swimming pools for relief The temperature fell 20 degrees during the night

According to the federal weather bureau forecast temperature tonight will not be so high and there probably will be showers tonight and Friday

A year ago the maximum and minimum readings in Marion were 88 and 59 degrees

A violent rainstorm washed away four bridges damaged crops and caused a loss estimated unofficially at $20 000 in Knox county early today

J B Kepple awoke to find lightning had set his house afire He extinguished the flames before much damage was caused The bridges destroyed were on county roads

O. S. U. ALUMNI LEADER JOINS IN DAVEY ATTACK

Accuses Governor of Making Dishonest Accusations Against Rightmire in Fund Dispute

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Aug 1—John B Fullen secretary of the Ohio State University association accused Gov Davey today of making dishonest accusations against President George W Rightmire of the university

Fullen in a bulletin to all district alumni governors and officers of Ohio State University Alumni clubs asked them to do everything you can to counteract this misrepresentation half truth and untruth which is the lowest kind of demagoguery

Fullen s bulletin said in part

Gov Davey s Sunday speech s in the Akron district indicate that he may still be in your county to make his speech It will be about President Rightmire s salary and the mean and vicious newspapers which it seems are all against him

Mr Davey said again at Akron Sunday that President Rightmire slipped in a $3 500 raise for himself in preparing the university s budget and when I cut it out he made an ill tempered attack on me For the last several weeks Mr Davey has been making these dishonest accusations

The President and the trustees are making no reply to it not wishing we suppose to be drawn into any brawl with Mr Davey The proper education of the youth of Ohio and the proper ranking of the Ohio State university are after all the issues as far as the university is concerned

But the Alumni association is issuing this bulletin in the conviction that the people have a right to know the real facts

Mr Davey knows but does not tell his crowds that he has been enjoying a $1 000 restoration in the salary of the governor since Jan 1 in line with this same legislative action He knows that all other state departments have been enjoying a full salary restoration during the same time He knows on the other hand that no university employe has received a penny of salary restoration

What Mr Davey should be telling his audiences is that if President Rightmire s salary were restored as Mr Davey s salary has been restored he would be receiving $2 500 more than he is now getting Most people would not consider that a raise

Furthermore in any fairness and truth Mr Davey should be telling the people that President Rightmire was the only official in the state to impose upon himself voluntarily a cut of 15 per

$25 FINE SUSPENDED IN SALES TAX CASE

Waitress in Marion Restaurant Found Guilty of State Charge

Miss Ann Nemes 22 waitress in the Farmer s Daughter cafe at 435 West Center street was given a $25 and costs suspended fine in municipal court this morning when Judge W R Martin found her technically guilty of violating the state sales tax regulations on July 10

In handing down his decision after a hearing on the case the judge explained that he was enforcing the minimum penalty and then suspending the fine for while the girl was technically guilty he did not feel that there was any willful or prearranged plan to violate the state regulations

Miss Nemes was arrested on July 10 after two women state salestax inspectors charged her with failure to collect the tax on a 10-cent sale of two bottles of soft drink The inspectors Mrs Eunice Clelland and Miss Millicent Mabee both working out of the Mansfield office of the state sales tax commission said at the hearing this morning that the purchases were not made individually

HIGHWAY ROUTE CHANGES SEEN UNLIKELY IN CITY

State Will Require Parallel Parking and Turns at Main and Center Streets Official Advises

If city council will repeal an ordinance providing that there be no right and left turns at Main and Center streets on Saturday and substitute parallel parking for angle parking on those streets in the business district no changes are likely to be made in the location of highways No 23 and 95 in the city

This information was received late yesterday by Councilman Frank R McDaniel in a letter from F W Turner state highway division engineer Consequently Mr McDaniel said he would arrange to call a special meeting of council probably next Monday night and propose that the steps recommended by Turner to solve the congested traffic problem in Marion be taken.

Adoption of the parallel parking system and repeal of the ordinance providing no right and left turns were seen as a probability by city officials Monday following a conference in Turner s office at Ohio State university

Mr Turner in his letter to Councilman McDaniel said if council will take the steps he has suggested he will recommend to Highway Director John Jaster Jr that no changes in the location of the highways be made While he did not mention state route No 4 in which a change in routing also had been contemplated Mr McDaniel said he believes Turner s failure to include that with highways Nos 23 and 95 was merely an oversight.

Italian Delegation However Says Anglo French Proposal ' Unacceptable."

(Copyright, 1935 — by The Associated Press)

GENEVA Aug 1 — Certain League of Nations circles predicted today following a long distance telephone conference between Premier Laval of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy that a formula for the settlement of the Italo Ethiopian dispute would be agreed upon within 24 hours

The impression grew that Il duce had proved somewhat conciliatory in his talk with Laval

This optimism was expressed despite the fact that only a few hours earlier the Italian delegation to the special session of the league council summoned to attempt a solution of the crisis has declared an Anglo French formula entirely unacceptable

Eden Laval Formula

The formula had been prepared over night by Anthony Eden of Great Britain and Premier Laval of France The text of the formula was communicated at once to Premier Mussolini in Italy A spokesman for the Italian delegation said the atmosphere among Italians is one of distinct pessimism

Premier Laval immediately called Premier Mussolini by long distance telephone urging him to abandon his opposition to the plan

It was understood the French leader called the attention of Italy s chief to the gravity of the

HOUSE REJECTS UTILITIES CURB

Rayburn Wanted Conferees Instructed To Agree To Senate Measure

LONG DELAY FORESEEN

Alabaman Labels Issue One of ' Orderly Execution or Mob Murder '

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Aug 1 Continuing its opposition to President Roosevelt s wishes the house refused again today to accept the provision in the utility bill to abolish unnecessary holding companies

This action was taken in rejecting a motion by Chairman Rayburn of the interstate commerce committee to instruct house conferees on the legislation to agree to the section approved by the senate by a one vote margin

New Measure Held Up

Rayburn said if his motion were rejected we may not complete action on the utility bill this session

Rep Huddleston Democrat of Alabama said the issue between the house and senate bills was orderly execution or mob murder

The vote against the Rayburn motion was announced as 183 to 209

That was a majority of 84 against

Previously the house rejected the abolition clause by a 30 vote majority Today was the first time a roll call was taken however

The administration forces were counting on disclosures by congressional lobby investigators to help them gain votes These included evidence that power representatives sent fake telegrams to congressmen in an anti utility bill campaign in which more than $1 000 000 was spent.

Foes of the utility bill have been pointing to charges that Thomas Corcoran Roosevelt aid attempted to intimidate Rep Brewster (Republican of Maine) in connection with the utility vote This was denied by Corcoran and others

Meanwhile the senate lobby committee is tentatively planning to make a tour of southern states next week for first hand evidence of the way in which utility companies fought the Roosevelt bill

Robinson said he came to Washington representing the Associated Gas & Electric Co to oppose the utilities bill

Chairman Black of the senate committee recalled what he termed a recent whispering campaign that Mr Roosevelt was in bad health It was quickly drowned by widespread press denials from Washington

President Roosevelt himself took cognizance of the campaign.

Didn t you suggest in March that a whispering campaign be started to convince the nation that the President was insane? Black asked

I don t recall Cramer a middle aged man with closely cropped hair replied

Didn t you suggest that a whispering campaign be started?

3 STATES SEEK DOCTOR KILLER

Missourian Who Fatally Mutilated Ohioan Identified as Mandeville Zenge.

HAD REGISTERED AS JONES

Victim's Widow Speeds to Chicago and Is Questioned Briefly by Police.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Aug 1—Mandeville Zenge, 26, Canton, Mo., carpenter was sought today by police of three states for questioning in connection with the death of Dr Walter J Bauer, of Kirksville, Mo., victim of a mutilating operation.

Before he died in a southside hospital, Dr Bauer told police he was forced to drive from Ann Arbor, Mich., by a man who had registered in the Jennings hotel as "T. S Jones" of Chicago. He said "Jones" performed the operation on him with a penknife.

Dr. Bauer's widow, who was Miss Louise Schaffer of La Grange, Mo., a nurse employed in a Kirksville, Mo., hospital, hurried to Chicago and was questioned briefly. She was in a hysterical condition but told police that she had kept company with Zenge for several years before her marriage to Dr Bauer on July 14. She also said she was to have met her husband, who was taking a post graduate course at Ann Arbor, within a few days for a belated honeymoon.

A note indicating Zenge may have committed suicide was turned over to police today.

A taxi driver told police he found the note in the effects of a passenger he drove to navy pier on Lake Michigan last night.

The note was signed "Mandeville," and police immediately set out to determine if the handwriting was that of the wanted man.

The note said: "I feel Louise will be happier with the doctor than with me. I intend to end it all."

Identified By Picture

The search for Zenge was intensified after Lieut. Van Loomis of the Michigan state police telephoned authorities here that hotel employes in Ann Arbor had pointed out a strong resemblance between a picture of Zenge and the missing hotel guest who had registered as "Jones." He said the employes were Charles Reaume, manager, and Norman Jedley, clerk.

C. M. Parker of the Missouri highway police said Zenge had quit his job on a federal locks construction job at Canton, July 26, without collecting wages due him and that the had not been seen there since.

"Jones" was described as six feet tall, 165 to 170 pounds, dark brown hair, well tanned complexion. He was well dressed in a gray suit and gray felt hat when last seen in Ann Arbor.

Says He Was Surprised

Mrs. Bauer, 23, arrived here last night, accompanied by several Kirksville, Mo., police. She told the police here that early last week she saw Zenge and that he seemed surprised when she told him she was married.

"He asked me if I were happy," she said, "and when I told him I was he just wished me luck and drove off in his car."

William Bauer, brother of the slain man, and his father, of Cleveland, arrived last night and told authorities they would do anything possible to help solve the killing.

The victim was driven to a southside filling station in Chicago early yesterday after the operation was performed. Harry and Harold Anderson, attendants, who drove Dr. Bauer to a hospital told police a man jumped from the car as it reached the station and fled.

cent higher than was required by the economy program of the state under the salary-cutting law of 1933-34. President Rightmire's total cut amounted to 32 per cent. Fifteen per cent of this he insisted on taking in spite of the protest of the board of trustees.

"Mr. Davey's continued statement that the university is getting more money for the current biennium with the cuts than it received the last two years is also not true. He knows, from the figures available to him in the office of his own finance director, that it is getting exactly $17,500 less.

"The university board of trustees, non-salaried appointers of the governor, have pointed out these things to him, and to the public. The trustees, in a statement signed by Chairman Newton D. Baker, told him and the people of Ohio that the university has undergone a $4,000,000 cut in revenues during the depression; that the present appropriation is less than for the preceding biennium, a sum which we deem inadequate: minimum efficiency requires all that the legislature voted."

situation from the standpoint of the League of Nations, Europe, and the world.

While his French colleague talked on the telephone, Eden, the British "trouble shooter," relaxed comfortably in a rocking chair on the porch of his hotel.

Objects to Conference

It was said Italy objected particularly to the outstanding provision of the formula, providing virtually for a broad political conference between England, France, Italy and Ethiopia.

Italy apparently objected to sitting with Ethiopia on a basis of equality.

Reports were current in Geneva circles, however, that a peace conference may eventually be held at Ventimiglia, Italy.

Italy was expected to protest against time limits fixed in the draft of the projected peace formula.

One deadline was set for Sept. 1, by which time the arbitrators on the Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission, who would resume their work, would be required to report to the league council.

Another time limit was set for Sept. 4, when the three powers and Ethiopia would be required to report their findings to the league council.

MORGENTHAU EVADES TAX BILL QUESTIONS

expressing the hope the revenues from the tax bill would be applied against the deficit and the national debt, Morgenthau was asked his views on the house measure.

He consulted his advisers and then said it was not his duty to pass on it, that his views were those outlined in the President's message.

"As long as I'm secretary of the treasury, I'm not going to try to write tax bills," he asserted.

The treasury head was asked point blank by Chairman Harrison whether the house bill "conforms" with recommendations of the President and the treasury.

"You place me in an embarrassing position," Morgenthau said, "when you ask me to analyze the bill before the house."

Harrison said he was "willing to go along" with the President's wishes, but emphasized there was a marked difference between the President's recommendations on corporation taxes and what the house ways and means committee wrote into the bill.

"It is inconceivable" the committee chairman said, "that the President would make any recommendation without consulting the treasury."

Harrison referred specifically to the action of the house in narrowing the corporation tax range to 13¾—14¾ per cent whereas the President had suggested a range of 10¾ to 16¾.

"I want to know" Harrison said "is that procedure approved by the President and the treasury department?"

"The President's message, I think" Morgenthau replied, "is a very clear cut, simple statement that anybody can understand. Where the bill in the house varies with that is simple to tell."

"Do you approve the changes made in the house bill from the President's message?"

"I don't feel its up to me, as an appointive executive officer to approve or disapprove any action of congress."

SENATE RESTORES VETERANS' BENEFITS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug 1 — With only one dissenting vote, the senate yesterday swept away virtually the last remnant of the Roosevelt economy act of 1933.

It passed 74 to 1 and sent to the White House a house bill restoring all benefits to veterans of the Spanish-American war, Boxer rebellion and Philippine insurrection which were in force prior to the economy law.

The bill would return nearly 50,000 pensioners to the rolls at an additional cost the first year estimated by veterans' administration officials at $45,581,132.

$5,112,125 ALLOTTED TO GET TAX EVADERS

Roosevelt Launches Drive Against "Little Fellow" and Liquor Levy Chiselers.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug 1—President Roosevelt today alloted $5,112,125 of work relief funds to the treasury department for a three-fold drive to tighten up on tax collection.

Included will be an intensive checkup on income tax returns of the "little fellow" and a drive against evasions of liquor taxes.

White collar jobless will be employed in the work.

The largest allotment was $2,448,290 for a survey of delinquent taxes and "nuisance" tax collections in large cities. The bureau of internal revenue also received $1,577,894 to check small income tax returns; and $1,086,941 for a nationwide study of retail liquor tax evasions.

Two other white collar projects also received funds, the census bureau getting allotments of $1,804,048 for an alphabetical index of the 1900 census, and $293,000 to determine any improvement in retail trade during the last two years. The census index is to be used in the government's old age pension program.

Coincidentally, Corrington Gill, assistant works progress administrator, announced that a large number of other surveys also would be carried out to provide additional white collar jobs, and that a clearing house had been set up to prevent duplication of activities.

HOLDING FIRMS WIN ANOTHER DEATH TILT

vestigators also have been into the files of the Edison Electric Institute.

The house rules committee gathered today to resume its lobby inquiry. Yesterday the house investigators reported that a witness, E V. Sellers was missing, but later Sellers communicated with newspaper men and said he had been in and around his hotel room, his office here, and Capitol Hill all day. He was the man who testified last week about contacts between Rep. Patton Democrat of Texas and officials of a Texas utility.

chases were being made individually and as such were exempt from the tax. She said on the witness stand that the inspectors were discussing who was going to pay for the drinks. One of the women placed a nickle on the table, she said, but she left to wait on another customer before the question was settled. As the ladies left the table Miss Nemes said she told them they could pay her for the drinks. One of the women gave her a quarter and she understood that they had decided to pay individually and that the one had given the other the nickle.

Mrs Clelland and Miss Mabee both denied that a discussion as to who would pay for the drinks took place. The testimony revealed that the girl had been employed at the cafe for two weeks prior to her arrest and that where she worked previously she had not had to charge the tax and make the change on purchases.

The prosecution of the girl was in the hands of A. B. Mabee, of Mansfield, manager of the eighth sales tax district, Floyd Cornely, inspector for the same district and Z. P Davis, city prosecutor. Mr. Mabee is the father of Miss Mabee, who was connected with the case as one of the two inspectors. The Eighth sales tax district includes Marion, Richland, Ashland, Wayne, Holmes, Knox and Morrow counties.

George Geran of 551 South Vine street was the defense attorney.

In connection with this case, the sales tax division of the state tax commission announced that it was a new policy to prosecute employes when it is impossible to fix responsibility for the violation on the proprietor of a business establishment.

MAXIMUM PENSION PAYMENTS ASKED

By The Associated Press

LIMA, O., Aug. 1—Witnesses before a special legislative committee urged yesterday payment of the maximum old age pension of $25 a month to all who are eligible. The committee also heard recommendations to change the pension law to take care of cripples and the blind, regardless of age. Other witnesses advocating establishment of a separate medical fund, said the $1 allowed for medical attention to old age pensioners was insufficient.

Youth Accused of Stealing Horse Owned by Father

Arnett Harraman, 21, of near Essex, accused in Union county of stealing a horse from his father, Roy Harraman, last Saturday night, was arrested in a Marion theater yesterday afternoon and returned to Sheriff William Rausch at Marysvile.

The search for Harraman started Sunday when the father discovered that neither his son nor a horse for which he had been offered $250 a few days earlier, were on the farm. Union county officials were notified immediately.

Harraman admitted yesterday that he sold the horse on Monday to a farmer living northwest of Marion for $125. When taken into custody yesterday he had $11 of the $125 and said he "just spent" the rest of it.

Sheriff Rausch said today he would file charges against the youth either this afternoon or early Friday morning. The nature of the charges was not disclosed.

Harraman was taken into custody about 3 p. m. yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Gene Geissler. The deputy a few minutes earlier had learned from an acquaintance of Harraman's that he had seen the young man entering the theater.

The search for the young man and the horse moved to Marion county when Sheriff Rausch learned that Harraman had been coming to Marion to visit a girl.

In the Union county jail yesterday Harraman said he stole the horse "to spite my father." Union county officials said today they were at a loss to understand the statement.

The farmer who bought the stolen horse will have to stand the loss of the $125, Sheriff Rausch said.

YOUTH FINDS FIFTH LATIN CONJUGATION

His Interest in Chemistry Brings Forth Several Jaw-Breaking Words.

By The Associated Press

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 1—Vernon King, 13-year-old high school freshman, was represented here today as discoverer of a fifth Latin conjugation and a dabbler in advanced chemistry.

In a copyrighted story the Salt Lake City Telegram said Vernon still was a little hazy on the Einstein theory, however, "because of incorrect sources of information."

"I discovered the fifth conjugation from seeing words that didn't belong in the other four," the Telegram said Vernon explained.

"These words have 'u' stems and constant stems, while others have 'a' stems long and short 'e' and 'i' stems."

The paper said university professors agree that, while it isn't found in text books, the fifth conjugation should be there.

Vernon began picking up Latin at the age of 7, when he came into possession of a volume of "Caesar's Gallic Wars."

In the same way he became interested in chemistry. He explained "leucyltrigly clylleucyltrig lyvylleucyloctaglycylglycine" (he spelled it) is "a compound a man once synthelized and is also an octadecapeptide."

Spelling words like that, for Vernon, is "just a matter of knowing my roots" and visualize them instead of trying to think how to spell them out."

"Pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoniosis" he rattled off just like that, and said it meant "breathing dust through the nose."

With all his precocity, however Vernon is pictured as "an ordinary boy at heart," by the newspaper, which illustrates by saying he is recovering now from a knee fracture suffered playing hide-and-seek with other boys on his 13th birthday June 23. He is a son of Mr. E. King.

A connector operated by a set screw in a lug has been invented to join electric cables without soldering.

BRAND SIGNS BARRED BY LIQUOR OFFICIALS

Action Result of Law Forbidding Donation of Placards by Brewers, Distillers.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Aug 1—You'll soon have to inquire whether an establishment handles your favorite brand of liquor, beer or wine. There won't be any signs to inform you.

The state liquor control board adopted yesterday a regulation prohibiting the display, outside the premises, of signs bearing brand names, signs without advertising matter will not be affected.

Permit holders, faced with revocation of their licenses as a penalty for violation of the order were to be given time to provide signs in conformity with the regulation.

The board's action resulted from difficulty encountered in attempting to enforce a regulation prohibiting distillers and brewers from donating signs to dealers.

Signs advertising certain brands may be posted inside establishments, the board decided, but window displays also will be outlawed.

13 STATES ALLOTTED DIRECT RELIEF FUNDS

Money for Only Half of August Seen as Hint WPA Will Be Speeded.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—Quickening of the swing from doles to work relief jobs was predicted by officials today as Harry L. Hopkins allotted direct relief funds to 13 states for only the first half of August.

Aids in Hopkins' works progress administration said they believed their part of the $4,000,000,000 works program would be well under way by Aug. 15.

Several states were granted funds only for special programs, such as transient camps, pending determination of when work relief will begin.

Hopkins' assistants said many states already had taken over some of the 4,000,000 unemployables now on relief. The government wants to turn them all over eventually to states and communities.

Allotments (for both general relief and special programs during the entire month except where otherwise noted) included Ohio $7,293,000.

COMPENSATION CHIEF WANTS MORE FUNDS

Says $1,600 a Year Auditors Not Capable of Handling Commission Accounts.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 1—The administrator of Ohio's workmen's compensation law wants additional funds to employ competent auditors and inspectors to increase the efficiency of the division.

Thomas M. Gregory, chairman of the state industrial commission, told a special senate investigating committee last night "You can't expect $1,600 (a year) auditors to deal properly with subjects which generally are dealt with by expert accountants," and "the inspectors are not sufficiently competent to perform their work properly."

He said that the auditing department is far behind in its work because of an inadequate staff and that due to lack of funds the secretary of the commission must supervise the work.

Sen. John F. Hunter, Democrat of Lucas, chairman of the senate labor committee, directed at Gregory a steady stream of questions prepared by investigators employed by the committee to study the administration of workmen's compensation.

Gregory asserted it was "not possible or reasonable to audit all of the 80,000 payrolls that come into the department each year but that "the best that can be done is to make test audits."

HOAX SUSPECTED IN GYPSY CAMP "BIRTH"

Delaware County Police Start on Trail of Nomads After Theft Reported.

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, Aug. 1—County police officials have come to the conclusion that the purported birth of an infant in a gypsy camp at Bellpoint last Sunday night was not a blessed event but a hoax. They decided this when it was learned James VanFleet, a rural mail carrier who said he was talking with the gypsies missed $20 from his billfold. It is now believed the baby shown officials was older than a newborn infant.

The gypsies had received permission of Sheriff Chet McKinnie to camp in a woods for a few days until the baby girl, "Delaware" Thompson, said by the gypsies to have been born early Sunday night, and her mother became strong enough to stand the rigors of the open road.

Van Fleet said he was eating lunch in his automobile near Cheshire yesterday and was talking with the gypsies, who pulled their car near him and stopped. The mail carrier said that during the conversation he felt a gypsy woman fumbling about a rear pocket in his trousers. He stopped her, he said, but did not inspect his billfold until later when he found $20 missing. He decided the woman had been replacing the billfold after rifling it.

It was reported that the nomads broke camp Tuesday afternoon and departed on federal route No. 42. Broadcast messages were going out over the police radio yesterday asking officials throughout the state to be on the lookout for the band of wanderers.

CLEVELAND HOPEFUL AS WALKOUT ENDS

McGrady Says "Corner Has Been Turned" in Settling of Labor Disputes.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 1—With an agreement reached to settle the union textile workers strike at the Industrial Rayon Corp. here, Cleveland hoped today it has entered a new era of greater capital-labor peace.

Assistant Secretary of Labor Edward F. McGrady, after arranging the strike settlement yesterday, gave the inspiration for Cleveland's hopes with an assertion that "the corner has now been turned in this city for settling labor disputes."

Only the ratification of members of the United Textile Workers union was needed today to put the settlement agreement into effect. The strike, affecting approximately 1,200 workers, has been in progress for 10 weeks.

A meeting of the workers to ratify was called for 2 p. m. Until then, terms of the settlement, signed by company officials and Thomas A. Lenehan, president of the Cleveland Federation of Labor, were undisclosed.

It was understood, however, that both sides made concessions. The union had asked for the check-off system, seniority rights, a 10 per cent increase and establishment of piece-work prices.

WATER FURNISHED FREE AFTER FLOOD

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., July 1—The city furnished water free today as residents of last Sunday's flood area set about cleaning layers of mud and silt from their homes.

City council authorized Safety Director Adolph Raab to permit home owners in the stricken district to attach hose lines to fire hydrants. No charge will be made for the water for a month.

Funeral arrangements were being made for Clark Carpenter, Lancaster grocer, and the only victim of the flood. Ben Sims of Sugar Grove found the body yesterday, a mile from where Carpenter went into the water when a boat carrying him to safety upset.

Skin "Itch."

Itching of the skin is a common and annoying complaint. It may be due to some constitutional disturbance, to a real skin disease or to the failure of proper function. In many instances it can be traced to an infection by a parasite called the "acarus scabei." This parasite produces a skin disturbance known as "scabies," or the "itch."

The victim complains of an unbearable itching of the skin. This may involve the entire surface of the body, but as a rule is more marked in those regions of the skin that are moist and warm. The palms, the webs of the fingers, the stomach area, the armpits and insteps are common sites of infection.

The itching is more severe at night and in many instances seriously interferes with sleep and rest. The condition is highly infectious. Sleeping in a bed recently occupied by a person with this skin affliction is not without danger of contracting the infection.

The parasite of scabies is usually associated with unhygienic conditions. Yet it may afflict persons who are extremely scrupulous about body hygiene. It may result from contamination in such public places as bathhouses, washrooms and restrooms.

The parasite burrows into the skin, causing local irritation. At the end of each groove or wrinkle caused by it, a grayish speck is sometimes seen. With the aid of a magnifying glass this may be identified as the obnoxious parasite. The burrows appear as irregular lines and are most readily seen on the wrists and palms where they follow the lines of the skin folds.

It is best treated by the application of a sulphur ointment. The patient is first advised to take a warm bath. Then he is to smear his hands with the sulphur ointment and gently rub it into the involved parts of the skin.

The next morning the victim takes a warm bath and all the ointment is removed by careful scrubbing with a stiff brush and sulphur soap. This procedure should be repeated daily until no trace of the parasite can be found.

As I have stated, scabies is a highly contagious disease. If a case should occur in your family take every precaution to prevent its spread to other members. It is especially important that young children, particularly infants, be guarded against this annoying complaint.

The victim should have his own linens and towels. All soiled linens and other garments should be washed separately.

MARION IS THIRD IN SWIM CONTEST

Cleveland and Newark Lead in Statewide Water Competition.

Marion is third in the "learn to swim" contest in which the Marion county chapter of Red Cross is cooperating with the Ohio Water Safety association, according to a report received yesterday by Miss Lillian Plack, executive secretary of the chapter.

The tabulations were based on the per thousand population. At the close of the week of July 27 Marion's score was 2583, Newark was second with 3833 and Cleveland headed the list with 5660. A cup will be awarded the city having the most points when the contest closes the last of August.

Both Toledo and Canton trailed Marion at the close of the first and second weeks. Toledo's points totalled 788 and Canton's, 730. Neither city made a report for the second week and the first week's totals were repeated.

Mrs. Ethel Bauman, in charge of first aid and swimming activities of the Marion county chapter of Red Cross, organized the "learn to swim" classes which meet weekly at Crystal Lake park.

Marion Man Is Descendant of Zoar Community's First "King"

C. E. Geissler Traces Ancestry to Founder of Early Communistic Venture; History To Be Preserved.

Efforts of the Ohio State Historical society to preserve the historical values of the community of Zoar in Tuscarawas county are of more than usual interest to C. E. Geissler of 374 Forest street whose great grandfather, Joseph Bimeler, was one of the founders and first "king" of the more than 200 German citizens who founded the community.

In 1817 Joseph Bimeler and more than 200 Germans fled from their native country and because of religious persecution came to Ohio to establish a cooperative community. Last week-end the Ohio State Historical society held dedication exercises at the "King's Palace," home of Bimeler. The ceremony marked the beginning of a program to preserve places of historical interest in the community.

Mr. Geissler's father, John A. Geissler who died in Marysville in 1913, was brought to Zoar from Stuttgart, Germany, when he was seven years of age, by his grandfather, "King" Bimeler.

Broke Rules on War.

He lived there happily until the Civil war broke out and then, he often told his son, he "couldn't sit around and see everyone else going to war," and he enlisted in the Union army.

Knowing that the community of Zoar did not believe in war and that he and the two other youths who had gone with him would be punished severely or banished, Mr. Geissler never went back. He fought from 1862 to 1865 and when he was discharged went immediately to Marysville and settled there, carrying on his trade as a shoemaker. He was 72 years of age when he died, June 14, 1913.

C. E. Geissler has never visited the Zoar community but his father went back on a visit early in 1900. He told his son that he found everything practically as he had left it and his bedroom in the "palace" remained almost as it was when he went to war. C. E. Geissler was born in Marysville and came to Marion with his wife and two sons, Eugene, who is deputy sheriff, and Harrod, in September of 1918.

According to a newspaper account of the dedication plans, the "King's Palace" served often as a place of assembly for townsfolk who emigrated from their native Germany in 1817, early Zoar community, of their own construction.

Self Supporting Community.

The German Separatists who left their mother church and homeland to find religious liberty built a town in which property was held in communal ownership. They became self-supporting, with their own mills and factories and everything was for the common welfare.

The community flourished until late in the nineteenth century when a desire for individual ownership led to disbanding of the community, each member receiving about $1,500 in property and cash.

Because John A. Geissler had gone to war and had not returned he could not share in the division of property.

After the community was disbanded, times became hard and many left to make a better living elsewhere.

Today, however, most of the people living in the community and attending the Zoar church are descendants of the pioneers of 1817.

CHAPTER THIRTY SEVEN

New Declaration

"REX Laurie "

Laurie hastily dropped the old tweed coat she was holding She stood in the living room of the Chelsea flat She had come to fetch some books she found she had left in the kitchen a cookery book and a manuscript book of recipes she had copied out

She had been surprised to find that Rex Moore was there The porter told her But he had gone out and said he would not be back until late

Now he had come in and found her standing in a shaft of evening sunlight that came through the bay window holding the old working coat that he had left on his chair when he went out

A second sooner and he would have seen her hugging it to her inhaling its sharp tweedy scent with an aching of her throat and an anguish in her heart far too deep for tears

She just had presence of mind to say lightly

This sleeve will come out if it isn't mended I don't suppose you've got anything here for me to mend it with

They looked at each other in embarrassment

I didn't know you had come back Laurie went on hurriedly The porter told me I came to fetch my cookery books that I'd left behind

I'm only here for a few days He looked eager and tremendously alive As of old she could feel the strength pulsing from his fingers as they shook hands He had just come from the eye specialist The great man's examination had had the happiest results Sir Gilbert said he was sure the danger of sudden blindness had passed for the immediate future at any rate

Is Mrs Budd looking after you all right" she asked keeping her voice with an effort to that light, artificial pitch

Yes thanks But I don't trouble her much I'm going back to Gretton tomorrow Albery is going to spend several days down there—I suppose you know that We are going to do the final tests with the new fuel Has he told you about it?

No Mr Albery has not mentioned it again It was only while I was working on the reports Is it going to be a success after all? Have they made it safe?

That remains to be seen It seems a long time since we met Laurie he added abruptly More than a fortnight. Have you begun your campaign of dropping hints about our matrimonial disputes?

Not to any extent she answered coldly "Have you told Mrs. Steele?"

No His face was hard "I've thought of nothing but getting ready for the Pacific By the way Laurie you haven't made that appointment yet for me to take you up in the air Have you forgotten?"

I haven't forgotten She forced herself to laugh but it was strange how again words seemed to be put into her mouth Perhaps I'll ask you to take me up when you try the new fuel "

You can ask for all you're worth he replied "I assure you that's not the way you'll make your first flight with me

Then some other time" she said still more hurriedly I'll ring you up When do you start for the Pacific?

At the end of next week I hope

The sunshine no longer came through the window To Laurie the room grew suddenly dark

I must be getting off she said picking up her books from the table

But Rex Moore was beside her He took the books from her His hands were on her shoulders His eyes were full of fire

Laurie I've learned something since we parted the other day His voice was vibrant full of such a surging emotion that her heart seemed to stop beating I can't live without you Laurie I love you—I love you little Laurie Say you love me We've been a pair of fools but it's not too late

But it was too late

Laurie swayed for a moment An irresistible impulse drew her to him As metal to magnet she was drawn drawn—until his arms were closing round her to fold her in his strength as in a tower

But she started back with a sharp cry

"You are mad Rex" she said "You don't love me I don't love you We had that out the other day "

"I'm not mad I was mad Now I'm sane Laurie you love me You can't fool me I knew it that night Wait for me to come back to you "

Again his arms seized her to crush out her resistance But this time she sprang away throwing back her head and managed to smile with a pretence of lightness

"Rex I have done my bit You told me the other day I had paid my debt You mustn't talk to me so wildly I am going to marry Mr Albery "

He started his arms fell to his sides His face went grey

"I see I used to think you would before I saw that he was in love with you I expected it—until as you say I went mad Do you mind telling me what he knows about us?"

"I told him the truth "

What do you mean—the truth" He was like a man turned to stone

"That we were not married About the trick I played on him and on you

"But—surely he'd never forgive that I told you Laurie he'd never stand being made a fool of But he has said nothing to me

He left it to me to explain Rex He does forgive me for deceiving him And it will make no difference to you

The man gave a loud hoarse laugh of fury

Of course he wants you so much He will forgive anything And you're going to marry him for his money —

Rex has an important conference tomorrow

FAST GAMES PLAYED IN TOURNEY SESSION

doubleheader under the lights Monday night.

Woody Harper and Harry Winters were hitting luminaries of the Forest Lawn victory, both connecting for three-base hits and singles. Gorenflo and Bolander scored the losers' two hits.

Get Long Hits

Extra-base hits enabled the Presbies to turn back Oakland in their afternoon tussle. Triples by Don Lindsey and Oberlander gave the winners two runs in the first inning. Milt Pohler hit a circuit clout in the fifth and Earl Castner and Bill Pohler scored in the sixth after opening the frame with singles.

Jimmy Kunkle, Lee street hurler, bested "Coxie" Weiss in a mound duel as Lee Street blanked the Baptists in the opening game of the night twin bill. Kunkle allowed five hits to Weiss' eight, struck out nine to the latter's six and gave four passes to Weiss' two.

Bill Darnell brought Lee Street its first run in the third when he tripled and came home as Anspaugh was safe on an error. Two runs were scored in the first of the seventh when Kunkle walked, Benny Crabtree doubled, scoring Kunkle. Kerr Conkle doubled and later came home on misplays. Crabtree was tagged out for the first retirement of the inning. Watt Merchant was the hitting star of the losers with two doubles in three trips to the plate.

Costly misplays paved the way for the St. Mary defeat by the Methodists. The Irish grabbed a one run lead in the first inning when Joe Robbins singled to start the inning and came home as Andrews was safe on an attempt to get the runner at home.

The Bishops went down in order for three innings but scored three runs on two errors and two hits in the fourth. Watson was safe as Tommy Andrews dropped a throw. The runner came home as Atkinson hit a sharp roller to shortstop which Armbruster muffed. Cram singled and Eddie Mautz was safe on a fielder's choice as Atkinson was out at home. Larry Edgington got his first of two hits to score Cram and Mautz. Watson scored the last Bishop run in the fifth when he was safe at first on fielder's choice and came home on passed balls and a misplay.

Dedication Game Planned; Tourney Gets Under Way

CHICAGO BALL CLUBS WANT WORLD SERIES HELD IN WINDY CITY

Cubs Trail by Only Half a Game, Sox Near Fast-Stepping Tigers

BY ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York baseball fans may talk of a different World Series but in Chicago there is a strong feeling that it will be a three for a quarter affair with the elevated and not the subway providing the chief mode of transportation

Once in 1906 the Sox and Cubs met to decide baseball supremacy with Fielder Jones leading the American Leaguers to a 4 to 2 triumph in games over the National League team managed by Frank Chance

Hopes Rise Anew

Now they have hopes again with the Cubs only a half game back of the pace setting New York Giants in the National League and the White Sox only a half game out of second place and three and one half games to the rear of the Detroit Tigers in the junior circuit

The Cubs had a golden opportunity yesterday when the Giants lost to the Phillies but the best they could do was a split in a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates They won the opener 4 to 2 with Roy Henshaw outpitching Cy Blanton before giving way to a pinch hitter in the eighth

They carried the nightcap to 11 innings before losing 6 to 5 The defeat broke the Chicagoans winning streak at 11 games and left them with a record of 21 victories in 28 games played since July 6

Henshaw had a chance to get credit for winning the second also having relieved Tex Carleton with two out in the fifth but Lloyd Waner clipped him for a double with two out in the ninth to tie the score

The Cubs scored again in the tenth off Charley Root but once more the Pirates knotted the count Gus Suhr s triple sending the tying run across the plate In the eleventh Tom Padden singled and Ralph Birkofer third of the Pittsburgh pitchers punched out a triple

The Giants were the victims of home runs as the Phils won 5 to 3 to take the series two games to one John Moore and Dolph Camilli picked out one of Carl Hubbell s curves and hit successive homers in the second Moore got another off Leon Chagnon in the ninth Curt Davis allowed 12 hits but Terry s double was the only extra base blow

Sox Close In

The White Sox closed in on the Yankees whose game with the Athletics was rained out by coming from behind to beat the Cleveland Indians 6 to 4 Mel Harder hit two homers for the Tribe but weakened in the eighth as the Sox sent four runs across the plate

The Tigers took advantage of the Yanks idleness to gain a half game and boost their lead to three games by trimming the last place Browns 9 3 Hank Greenberg Marvin

Fuchs Through as President of Boston Braves

By The Associated Press

BOSTON Aug 1—Emil Fuchs colorful president of the Boston Braves for the past 10 years was forced today to vacate his office to silent and tactful Bill McKechnie his manager since 1930

Fuchs had until today to regain control of the club by obtaining 9 500 shares of stock from Charles F Adams his vice president He announced yesterday that he was unable to do so and bowed to Adams pay up or get out by Aug 1 ultimatum

The switch that made McKechnie temporary president is an ironical one Five months ago when Fuchs coaxed Babe Ruth to Boston McKechnie who works under a verbal agreement was destined to be ousted by the famous home run slugger who made no secret of his managerial ambitions

Fuchs hoped that the Babe s presence would solve his financial problems but they were ill mated The blow off came several weeks ago when they exchanged hard names and Ruth retired

McKechnie s pro tem promotion however probably will be of short duration He will finish the season as manager Next year if Adams fails to find a purchaser Bob Quinn who sold the Red Sox to Tom Yawkey probably will be lured from Brooklyn to take over the general managership of the tribesmen McKechnie will remain under him as team manager

Adams burdened by his many other interests which include two professional hockey clubs and the Suffolk Downs race track is eager to sell his Braves holdings The 9 500 shares he takes over today represent Fuchs pledged holdings as well as his own minority interests

O'Neill Seen as New Manager of Cleveland Tribe

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND O Aug 1—A [illegible] Walter Johnson remained manager of the Cleveland Indians today baseball fans and sports writers here felt confident [illegible] would be chosen shortly

[illegible] evidence that the Tribe s owners are considering a replacement came yesterday when General Manager Bill Evans admitted he had been talking informally with Owen Donie Bush present manager of the Minneapolis American Association club

Bush however left no room for doubt he will remain the rest of the season at Minneapolis and his statement led to a general belief in Cleveland that the Indians might choose someone else as a full time manager until 1936

Leading candidate for the full time job and possibly as likely to get it permanently as is Bush is Steve O Neill one of the Indians present coaches and who was a catcher for Cleveland in 1920 when the Tribe won its only world series championship

O Neill s name is almost invariably mentioned whenever fans and experts discuss the managerial question and it is known he is well liked by the club s owners who only a few years ago made him manager of the Toledo American Association team and then brought him back to Cleveland as coach when they disposed of their interest in the Mud Hens

Johnson s status with the team will be discussed when the present manager meets with Alva Bradley president of the club in Detroit Saturday or Sunday

PEORIA KILLER TO GET CHAIR

Jury Orders Death Sentence for Youth Who Attacked and Slew Girl

JUDGE ASKS NEW TRIAL

Enters Motion Himself During Absence of Defendant s Attorney

By The Associated Press

PEORIA Ill Aug 1—The electric chair loomed for Gerald Thompson 26 today as atonement for attacking and killing Mildred Hallmark 19-year-old convent graduate the night of June 16

Only seven weeks after the girl s battered and denuded body was found in a cemetery ditch Thompson was under sentence of death ordered by a circuit court jury which deliberated less than four hours last night

Indifferent during a 10 day thrill filled trial during which his counsel fought to put into the record the defendants own account of scores of attempts to despoil Peoria women Thompson broke after the court pronounced sentence Tears appeared in the toolmaker s eyes as he waited in Judge Joseph E Daily s chambers for his return to jail

Judge Asks New Trial

The trial ended with an unusual touch when Judge Daily unwilling to wait while Ben Thurman Thompson s attorney was located entered a motion for a new trial on behalf of the defendant and set Aug 12 to hear the plea

Thompson described by his counsel and a few witnesses as a sex crazy youth appeared bewildered as he sat awaiting the verdict.

Prominent men and women of the city surrounded state s attorney Edwin V Champion to congratulate him on outcome of the trial

Thurman had offered as the only defense a claim that Thompson was insane in matters of sex and sought to show that uncontrollable desires made him irresponsible for his attack on the pretty cafeteria hostess In support of his claim he made an unsuccessful attempt to introduce Thompson s diary and admitted the story of the attack on Miss Hallmark as contained in the youth s 2 500 word confession

Says He s Legally Sane

Champion fought back with the claim that Thompson was legally sane

Thompson s confession told of picking up Miss Hallmark as she waited for a street car taking her to a lonely section beating her into unconsciousness as she resisted his advances tearing off her clothes and then throwing her body into a cemetery ditch
